Nations Key Block to Aid

By ROBERT GRAY Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) - The U.S. foreign aid program, tradi-tionally a thorny issue on Capitol Hill, has produced a whole new set of frictions this year.

A conference of delegates from both houses is deadlocked over one area of the 1967 aid authorization bill with no sign of compromise in sight.

Senate conferees are refusing to yield on provisions adopted in that chamber to cut back on U.S. sales and grants of military equipment to underdeveloped natlons

The House delegation, with administration backing, is trying to eliminate those provisions and substitute compromise approaches.

But a conference Monday, the first in 18 days, broke up in disagreement after an hour's discussion in closed session. Various alternatives were discussed but none was acceptable to both sides.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he would prefer no aid bill at all this year to one that continued at its present level military aid to underdeveloped nations.

Fulbright and fellow Senate conferees have argued that sales of arms to such countries have helped keep them impoverished paying for equipment they don't need.

The House conferees, representing the administration view, hold that cutting back arms supplied under the program would amount to unilateral disarmaare or could be threatened by Communist aggression.

The possibility has been raised in the House that a foreign aid appropriation bill, providing actual funds, will be passed without waiting for the deadlocked authorization measure, which sets policy and spending limits.

Senate sources said that no matter what the House does, the Senate Appropriations Committee would not likely follow a move to bypass the authorization process.

Catholics' Move Fails to Satisfy

By GEORGE W. CORNELL AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - Protestant leaders today voiced both appreciation and some disappointment at results of the just-concluded meeting of Roman Catholicism's new international synod of bishops in Rome,

Representatives of several denominations saw potential ecumenical gains in some of the actions recommended, but they said further steps still were needed to put mixed marriages on an equitable footing.

On that matter, Charles Parlin, a Manhattan attorney and Methodist observer-delegate just returned from Rome, said both Protestants and Catholic lay leaders were "disappointed that the synod didn't go further."

However, he added, "even making and very hopeful sign."

The synod, which ended its month-long first meeting Sunday, urged an easing of the requirement that non-Catholic partners in mixed marriages make oral promises to rear children as Catholics.

It was also recommended, subject to action by the Pope, that local bishops be allowed to make exceptions to the rule reofficiate at mixed marriages in order for the church to consider them valid.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) - "Gee, dad, what's so great about that?" asks the teen-ager as his father moons over a record of Benny Goodman's "Sing Sing Sing."

Nowhere is there more cleave age in the generation gap than in the field of popular music. Just as the older generation can hear nothing but noise in the electrified music of today, so the youngsters fail to find any magic in the long-ago strains of Goodman, Milier, Dorsey, et al.

But the oldsters have their memories. Now such memories can be bolstered by a comprehensive new book called "The Big Bands," by George T. Simon-MacMillan $9,95. The price is steep, but many a mid-die-aged swing buff will find it worthwhile.

Simon was in town to talk about his book, and he appears to be a splendid choice for chronicling the big-band era. He started playing druns in high school and at Harvard, He adds, "I was good enough to play in the first Glenn Miller band; but then, he was a good friend, and tolerant as well."

Later he turned to writing about bands for the defunct Metronome magazine. From 1935 to 1955 he reviewed all the great ones. Hence "The Big Bands" is an intensely personal volume, but authoritative as well. THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Captain J. T. West was a spunky man. Back in 1876 he retired from successful Mississippi Boating business and moved to Hope, (a cabin boy under him was 2 youngster named Samuel L. Clemens whom the West nicknamed Mark Twain.)

In 1893 The Bank of Hope came into existence with spunky Captain West as its first president, Later known as the First National Bank of Hope, it stills maintains the old rivermans aggressiveness and business institution.

Since opening the doors of its new building at Second and Walnut in 1959, First National has almost doubled its customer deposits, and grown into a financial institution offering a full range of services to all Southwest Arkansas. Maybe it's because the Spirit of spunky Captain West is still there.

Reviving of Geneva Plan Peace Key

By JACK BELL

Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) - Criticizing the Soviet Union for rejecting what he termed a new peace move, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield predicts President Johnson would halt U.S. bombing of North Vieinam if the Geneva Conference were reconvened_

Mansfield said in an interview Monday the Soviets are unrealistic in dismissing the possibility a revived conference could lead to peace in Vietnam.

His statement came in the wake of publication in Moscow of a statement by Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

Kosygin, in a letter quoted in part in Tass, called "unreal" the notion that a conference revival could lead to peace. Kosygin also said any conference in which the North Vietnamese government and National Liberation Front or Viet Cong did not participate would have no chance of success.

The Soviet leader's statement came in a letter to Alex Bebler, president of the World United Nations Association,

Mansfield said that instead of maintaining a frozen position in regard to revival of the Geneva Conference, which directed a settlement in Laos in 1962, the Soviets should join with Great Britain as cochairmen in call-WORLD ALMANAC

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) -Mayor John Bueker of Stuttgart, president of the Arkansas Municipal League said Monday that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has conducted plenty of studies on municipal problems but that cities and towns can no longer exist on studies, Bucker said that the greatest need for Arkansas cities is money and not research.

"At the beginning of his term, Rockefeller admitted that the problems of cities and towns were insurmountable," Bucker said. "We replied there were no problems we could not overcome if we had adequate finances."

Bucker said the Arkansas Municipal League was responsible for the increase in turnbacks to municipalities during the past 20

Gentle Massage of Value In Treating Polymyositis

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

U-My wife has had myositis for six years. Nothing she has taken seems to help.

What do you advise?
A-Chronic myositis (inflammation of a muscle) may be due to an infection or a muscle strain that has never had a chance to heal. The first procedure would be to find and remove the cause, if possible. Hot packs or an electric pad applied for 20 to 30 minutes two or three times a day often help. Drugs are of little value in the treatment of this disease.

When you have no score, a new suit response is always a one round force. Should it still be a one round force Bridge books are noticeably silent on the whole subject of part score bidding. There is a good reason for this. Each part score presents its own problems. You just don't have enough space in a bridge book to cover every part score from 20 to 90.

In yesterday's column, we showed North and South making three spades. Today we show the next hand of the rubber.

We are going to answer one of the above questions right now. We do not play a new suit response as a force when it is a bid of game, but we do ask our partner to bid again if he can raise our suit or make some positive move. We just don't want him to rebid his own suit with a fair suit and a poorish hand. North knew that his partner's two diamond bid was not a force. North also should have realized that either three diamonds would be a safe contract or that if South couldn't make three diamonds, then opponents would probably be able to do something in hearts or clubs. In other words North had L nothing to lose by bidding three diamonds, and he might gain a slam bonus. Assuming that North had bid three diamonds, South would have bid again and we think that six diamonds would be reached. Of course they might have reached sevenwhich would be one trick too. high because spades were going to break 4-2.

They should have reached six, even with the part score handicap. They would almost surely have arrived there had they been bidding from scratch

Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) - The Viet grounds of the gaily lighted independence Palace tonight as President Nguyen Van Thieu entertained Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and 2,000 inaugural guests, but hit none of them.

A fifth shell straying from the target, wounded three persons outside. The tube of a 61mm mortar, believed to have been the weapon, was found in a building five blocks from the palace. The shells landed in quick

Inside the palace as the explosions were heard were President Thieu and 2,000 guests, including delegates to the inauguration from 22 countries.

not damaged, One of the motar rounds was said to have hit a guard post at the southwest corner of the pa lace rounds. Several cars were damaged by the blast and one account said an American Army colonel was among those hurt. Reports from the palace a few minutes after the blast said all rounds landed several hundred yards from the bright-

all," Humphrey told newsmen, President Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky had just left the ballroom to prepare for a state dinner within half an hour on an upper floor of the palace. The ballroom was still thronged with guests, including all of the foreign delegations,
